International Resources Workshop

Getting to the recommended resources:
http://library.richmond.edu > Subject & Course Guides > International Studies > International Studies Research Guide

Getting Started Tab
- Find articles and statistics on countries and international issues
- Explore related library research guides

International News Tab
- Access historical and current news resources and news websites
- Discover online television and radio broadcasts from around the world

Country Information Tab
- Find information on country backgrounds, histories and cultures
- Locate official embassies and legal documents

International Topics Tab
- Explore resources on a variety of global topics including health, conflict, economics and more
- Identify international public opinion polls

Intergovernmental Organizations Tab
- Discover the variety of international and regional organizations assisting development, conflict resolution and aid

Travel Tab
- Find links to online travel guides, government advice for travelers and information about study abroad programs.

Laura Horne-Popp
Social Sciences & Humanities Librarian
lhorne@richmond.edu

Marcia Whitehead
Humanities Librarian
mwhitehe@richmond.edu