Religious Studies Research

Subject Guide: libguides.richmond.edu/religion

Getting Started…
*Think about your topic – keywords, names, essential places, time periods, etc…
*What language(s) can you read? Many articles, items are in other languages.
*Try to be exhaustive in your search & use of varied resources.
* Use bibliographies and references to broaden your search.

Books & Dissertations:
- Library Catalog
- WorldCat
- Dissertations & Theses

Journal Articles:
- Databases searchable together through EBSCOhost (choose databases)
  - Academic Search Complete (general)
  - ATLA (religion)
  - Religion & Philosophy Collection
  - Humanities Full-Text and International
  - Historical Abstracts (World, but NOT U.S. or North America)
  - America History & Life (U.S. / North America)
  - Art & Architecture
  - Art Full Text
- MLA (literary criticism)
- JSTOR (searches full-text – so search titles, or add in additional terms, location, architect, etc…)
- Project Muse
- Religious & Theological Abstracts
- POIESIS: Philosophy Documentation Center Collection
- ITER (Index for European culture 400-1700)
- Oxford Islamic Studies Online

Background:
- Encyclopedia of Religion / Encyclopedia of Islam
- Oxford Reference Online
- Wikipedia

Interlibrary Loan for items we don’t have: library.richmond.edu/services/interlibrary-loan
Schedule an appointment with me whenever you need help with your research or locating items.
cwittig@richmond.edu (289-8459)